

Resilient Sacramento Stakeholder Meeting

Thursday, September 12, 2013 – 9:00am – 4:00pm
Capital Public Radio, Inc. – Community Room
7055 Folsom Boulevard, Sacramento, CA 95826

8:30 Light Breakfast and Networking

9:00 Opening Remarks and Introductions

Rick Eytcheson, Capital Public Radio, Inc.

Dr. Rob Wassmer, Sacramento State

Julia Burrows, Greenwise Joint Venture

Amber Mace, UC Davis Policy Institute for Energy, Environment & the Economy

Mike McKeever, Sacramento Area Council of Governments

Larry Greene, Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District

Kate Meis, Local Government Commission

9:50 Resilient Sacramento's Connection to State Level Climate Adaptation Efforts

Michael McCormick, Governor's Office of Planning and Research

10:10 SMUD Climate Readiness Report Findings

Kathleen Ave, Sacramento Municipal Utility District

10:30 Water Management and Hydroelectric Generation: Identifying and Adapting to the Impacts of Climate Change

Gary Freeman, Pacific Gas and Electric Company

10:50 Regional Planning for Healthy and Resilient Communities

Kathy Dervin, California Department of Public Health

11:10 Flood Impacts in the Sacramento Region

Richard Johnson, Sacramento Regional Flood Control Agency

11:30 Vulnerability to Agriculture in the Sacramento Region

Louise Jackson, UC Davis Department of Land, Air and Water Resources

11:50 California: The Saudi Arabia of Food

Fred Mendez, Rabobank

12:10 Break/Lunch

12:45 Breakout Discussions: Identifying Opportunities to Address Climate Change Risks Through Existing Efforts

Discussion Questions:

- Identifying Primary Concerns: What are your primary sector concerns? Rank the top five concerns.
- Identifying Opportunities: What documents/processes drive your decision-making? How do you decide to allocate funds?
- Prioritizing Current Opportunities: What are the near term opportunities to influence identified leverage points and address concerns?
- Identifying Additional Stakeholders: Are there other stakeholders that should be involved in these discussions or that drive sector decision-making?

2:30 Report Back and Group Discussion

3:30 Next Steps and Closing Remarks

4:00 Adjourn